THANK YOU for your interest in visiting Bamburgh Castle, we are confident that we can provide you with a very memorable and great value for money experience.

We have been receiving visitors here for over 50 years and are continually improving both the offer and the level of customer service we provide.

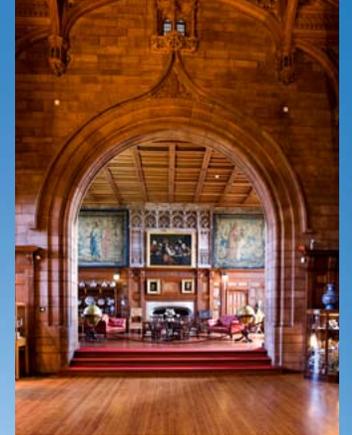

Just over an hour north of Newcastle and one and a half hours from Edinburgh we are ideally situated to break journeys north into Scotland or return journeys south. Four miles from the A1 at Belford, the castle offers tantalising glimpses from up to fourteen miles away. The holy island of Lindisfarne is just thirty minutes away, when the tides are right, the history of the two sites being inextricably linked.

With fourteen rooms and over three thousand items on display, ranging from arms and armour to fine porcelains, china, artworks and furniture, there is always something of interest to discover. The Armstrong and Aviation Museum provides an interesting insight into the legacy left by the First Lord Armstrong and the contribution he made to industry in the North East.

Free guided tours (time constraints apply) or introductory talks are enhanced by the presence of knowledgeable staff, guide books and audio tours. Specialist talks from archaeologists are available as are themed Northumbrian evenings and taster sessions.

We are happy to discuss any particular requirements you may have.
